Service Description

WYPIN is for young people aged from 12 to 25 years from diverse backgrounds who want to make a difference. WYPIN uses a range of leadership, capacity building and advocacy strategies that engage culturally diverse youth across the western region. This program is independent and is directed by young people. WYPIN has five core functions:- To engage young people (especially those recently arrived to Australia) through recreational activities and camps- To provide training programs to build the capacity of young leaders- To educate young people how to positively influence change- To campaign against racism and discrimination- Deliver workshops that promote multiculturalism and inclusion to business, community organisations and schools. WYPIN's Committee of Management is comprised of young people aged 12-25 years. At its core, WYPIN is a youth empowerment, youth advocacy group. WYPIN plays an important role in advocacy and policy development and are seen as a critical voice on diverse youth issues in the Western region of Melbourne. If you are aged from 12 to 25 years and want to make a difference in your community, you can join WYPIN. Through WYPIN you can: - Gain leadership opportunities- Develop projects and campaigns
>-Volunteer to be on a working group and/or youth committee.
