Service Description

Uniting ReGen provides a range of free alcohol and other drug treatment services for young people and their families in Brimbank. Williams House residential withdrawal service (for people aged 12-21 years) is located in Coburg, but supports young people from Brimbank and surrounds. It is a four bedroom house with a ‘home like’ environment, staffed 24 hours a day, seven days a week. We offer intensive support and a safe place to assist you in the withdrawal process and help you prepare for making changes to your alcohol or other drug use.
