

Domestic Violence Resource Centre Victoria

Street Address

292 Wellington Street, Collingwood 3066

Phone

9486 9866

Website

www.dvrcv.org.au

Service Description

The Domestic Violence Resource Centre Victoria (DVRCV) is a state-wide resource centre working to prevent and respond to family violence, with a particular focus on men's violence against women in intimate relationships.

They provide training, publications, research and other resources to those experiencing (or who have experienced) family violence, and practitioners and service organisations who work with family violence survivors. Services & Support:- Initial telephone support, information and referral to services to assist people who have experienced family violence. Phone us on (03) 9486 9866, Monday to Friday, 9am – 5pm.

- Supportive online information to help people who have experienced family violence. - Training

Courses for professionals to improve their skills in supporting survivors of violence. - A

biannual magazine, DVRCV

Advocate, which includes a list of Victorian support groups. -

Publications and resources including posters, helpful pamphlets, booklets, multimedia, digital and websites.

- Prevention to response workforce development. - Policy advice and advocacy. -

Partners in Prevention network and building the prevention evidence base & www.dvrcv.org.au

Service Type

INDIVIDUAL

Date Created

2018-01-10 02:30:28

Last Updated

2018-02-06 22:18:43