Service Description

Good Shepherd Australia New Zealand support schools and agencies to coordinate services to support children and young people aged 10-18 years at risk of disengaging from education. Good Shepherd Australia New Zealand (GSANZ) delivers School Focused Youth Services in the Brimbank and Melton regions.

/> The School Focused Youth Services (SFYS) across Victoria aim to support young people (aged 10 – 18 years) who have been identified as being at risk of disengaging from education. Through the development of partnerships and improvements to the integration of services, SFYS seeks to connect school and community sectors in ways that build the capacity of young people to continue their education.
